

A Bexley Blunder

How dare they, how dare they
How dare they plunder,
Removing our archives
This is a blunder!

Accounting decisions.
Council inquisitions.
All with little vision.
Proffered asunder.

Locals are now incensed
'records are roots' we vent
Shifting our history
This is a blunder!

Where does the reason lie?
In transferring archives
Who will protect past lives?
People will wonder.

Despite budgets ring fenced
Feelings are so entrenched
Wrenching our heritage
This is a blunder!

Something has gone awry.
Bexley will question why.
There will be protests
A gathering thunder.

Lame reasons are given.
As History's hidden.
Bexley voices risen.
This is a blunder!
